Dear s9(2)(a) [Office of the Prime Minister]

I trust this email finds you well?

First, please accept my congratulations on your recent success. The result is a credit to the vision and desire of the Labour Party for a better future for New Zealand, something I firmly believe in.

Earlier this year, WeAreTENZING, the company I founded with Derek Handley, launched an events division aimed at inspiring positive change. One of our first events will be a business breakfast, held in Auckland in March 2018, entitled 'Inside The Mind'.

The theme for our first breakfast is centered around inspiring and empowering women and as such we would like to extend an invitation to the Rt Hon Jacinda Ardern to deliver the keynote speech at our inaugural event.

I have attached a formal letter of invitation to this email and would be very grateful if you would present this to the Prime Minister for her consideration.

Once again, congratulations on your team's recent successes and thank you in advance for your assistance on this matter.

Warmest regards,

Dear Prime Minister,

RE: Formal invitation to deliver the keynote speech at the inaugural 'Inside The Mind' business breakfast in March, 2018

First, please accept my most wholehearted congratulations on your recent election to the Office of Prime Minister of New Zealand. As an outspoken Labour supporter and advocate for change, I am thrilled with the New Zealand public's decision and am incredibly excited to be a part of your relentlessly positive vision for the future of New Zealand.

In March, 2018, the company s9(2)(a) Derek Handley, WeAreTENZING is launching a business breakfast series entitled 'Inside The Mind', which is designed to showcase exceptional people doing significant things in New Zealand and around the world.

Our inaugural event is centered around a theme of 'Empowering Women' and you, of course, arguably more than anyone else in our great country right now, embody the very essence of our theme. As such, we would be honoured if you would kindly consider an offer to deliver the keynote speech of the inaugural 'Inside The Mind' business breakfast event.

I understand your calendar must be incredibly full and as such, we would happily schedule the event on any Wednesday, Thursday or Friday morning in March, 2018 that best suits you.

The event would run from 7am until 9am at a to-be-confirmed inner-city Auckland location. Your presence would only be required from 7.30am.

The format of the event would be as follows:

- 7am - Breakfast and Networking Opportunity
- 7.30am - MC Introduction and Housekeeping
- 7.45am - Keynote Speaker
- 8.15am - Panel Discussion facilitated by Derek Handley

8.45am - Interactive Audience Q&A Session
9am - Event Finishes

In return for your time and effort, we would be honoured to pay you a fee of $5,000, either paid directly to you or, if you wish, donated to a charity on your behalf.

If possible, I request you respond to this invitation, whether affirmatively or negatively, within ten business days to ensure we have enough time to make alternative arrangements if you are unable to attend.

Once again, my warmest congratulations on your election victory and I look forward to your response on the proposal outlined in this letter.

Warmest regards,

s9(2)(a)
