

NZ-UK FTA

Examples of Tariff Reductions for New Zealand Exporters

Previous Tariff <sup>[1]</sup>	Product	From Day 1	Year 3	Year 5	Year 15
<$50/100L	Wine	Free Access				Free Access
16%	Honey	Free Access				Free Access
8%	Onions	Free Access				Free Access
6%	Hoki	Free Access				Free Access
8-20%	Mussels	Duties removed in 4 equal reductions over three years	Free Access			Free Access
<8%	Apples <sup>[2]</sup>	Free Access for off-season fruit, and 20,000 tonne tariff-free annual quota for in-season fruit.	Free Access			Free Access
<$374/100kg	Butter	Quota increasing over time: 7,000 tonnes-15,000 tonnes annually		Free Access
<$358/100kg	Cheese	Quota increasing over time: 24,000 tonnes-48,000 tonnes annually		Free Access
<8% + $272/100kg	Other dairy <sup>[3]</sup>	Limited tariff-free access for some products	Free Access			Free Access
<12% + $500/100kg	Sheepmeat <sup>[4]</sup>	Transitional tariff-free quota increasing over time: up to 149,205 tonnes-164,205 tonnes annually			Free Access
<12% + $492/100kg	Beef <sup>[5]</sup>	Transitional tariff-free volume increasing over time: 12,000 tonnes-60,000 tonnes annually			Free Access

[1] Rates may fluctuate with currency changes

[2] Off-season trade window runs from January-July. Seasonal trade window runs from August-December.

[3] Includes whole milk powder, skim milk powder, whey, other dairy proteins, infant formula, liquid milks, yoghurt, ice cream

[4] Figure stated equates to total combined WTO country-specific quota access for sheep meat in addition to FTA quota access

[5] Quota access from Years 1-10 starting at 12,000MT and rising in equal annual instalments to 38,820MT. Safeguard volumes from Years 11-15 starting at 43,056MT and rising in equal annual instalments to 60,000MT in Year 15.